

Shrimp Season Closes Protection Measure

Mississippi's shrimping season closes for about a month and a half starting April 30 in order to protect the shrimping industry during a very crucial period. Biologist William J. Demoran said the season was closed to protect the young shrimp from being killed by the trawls.

The biologist for the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission explained that year-round trawling without any controls would result in killing young shrimp each spring. The young shrimp move into the Gulf of Mexico during the summer and they are too small to catch in the trawls, but they are killed by the trawls as they are pulled through the water.

DEPENDENTS GO ABOARD

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, announced that travel of dependents of military men stationed abroad will be resumed immediately.

Dependents have been banned from traveling with or joining servicemen abroad under government authority since last September.

The cut-off was ordered, in part, to cut spending of dollars overseas and improve the U. S. balance of payments situation. Another aim was to free planes for the partial mobilization of men and equipment in Europe.

The picture certainly looks better this year than last year," he stated, explaining that the young brownies have arrived on schedule and they seem to be in large enough numbers which indicates a better season than last year.

Temperature was one of the factors attributed for the shrimp failure last year, he noted. Temperatures didn't warm up until about June 1.

The first brown shrimp were found by the biologist Monday, and he said they were discovered in marsh areas. "After they grow a little bit they will be moving back into the channels and back into the Sound."

"I haven't heard one person in our line of work attribute last year's bad season to over-fishing," Demoran stated.

CLEARANCE GIVEN BILL REORGANIZING FORESTRY AGENCY

JACKSON, Miss. —The Mississippi Senate gave final clearance to a bill to reorganize the state Forestry Commission, sending the measure on to the House for its action.

The measure, introduced by Sen. Hayden Campbell of Jackson, would add two members to the Commission and leave the governor land commissioner and agriculture commission on as ex-officio members.

An earlier bill which passed both houses was vetoed by Gov. Ross Barnett, who objected to the removal of the two commissioners as ex-officio members.

Both measures were designed to give forestry districts without representation on the commission places on it as the membership turned over.

The Senate also passed a bill to permit counties to issue an other $1 million in port bonds, raising the limit from $2 million to $3 million and retaining the provision requiring an election on an issue.

Sens. Edgar Lee of Prentiss and Ollie Knight of Amory steered to passage a bill to prohibit the state game and fish commission from purchasing earth-moving equipment.

Lee told the Senate the bill, which placed a $6,500 limit on commission purchases, was designed to take the commission out of the earthmoving business.

Sen. Sonny Montgomery of Meridian steered to passage a bill to permit insurance companies to write variable annuity insurance contracts. Under the terms of the bill, the company could buy stocks and the policyholder would share in the yield of the stocks.

THREE MEN TRANSFERRED TO PARCHMAN

Deputy Sheriff Gerald V. Price reported three men sentenced during the March term of Circuit Court were transferred Friday to Parchman State Penitentiary.

M. G. Parker, 37, Jerry Parker, 19, and Oscar Barabino, 47, were brought to Harrison County Jail in Gulfport and held in custody there Thursday night and were removed to Parchman Friday morning by prison traveling Sergeant Van Landingham.

The Parkers of Opelika, Ala., were each sentenced to serve one year in the penitentiary for burglary and larceny and Barabino was sentenced to six months in the state prison for child desertion.

SENATE MAY BEAT SALES TAX HIKE

JACKSON, Miss. —Sen. Flavours of Belmont predicted a vote of a sales tax increase had enough votes in the Senate to defeat the proposal.

Lambert, who spearheaded earlier successful efforts to stave off a sales tax proposal, said his group in the Senate was opposed to both the tax increase passed by the House and the lesser increase recommended by the governor's revenue study committee.

The Senate Finance Committee declined Tuesday to act on the House-passed bill, which would increase the sales tax from 3 to 3 1/2 per cent.

Lambert said the opponents had agreed, however, not to block the committee in reporting out an amended bill, but would oppose such measure on the floor.

Committee chairman Sen. Ellis Bodron of Vicksburg has favored a 1/4 per cent increase, but committee sources said he and a majority on the committee opposed recommending the House measure to the Senate.

The House amended a 1/4 per cent tax increase bill and added another 1/4 per cent to it to give the state an estimated $20 million in additional revenue. However, the House stipulated that the extra 1/4 per cent would be divided between teacher salary and highway maintenance.

The House also amended the bill to take another $1 million for state aid roads, leaving only $9 million for the general fund.

The sale tax proposal came as lawmakers sought to raise $27 million in new money needed to finance a $287 million budget for the next biennium and leave a $5 million operation cushion.

Girl Scout Court of Awards

Court of awards for the Bay St. Louis Neighborhood Girl Scouts will be held at 8 a.m. May 5 at St. Joseph Academy Memorial Hall.

An interesting program is being planned for the occasion.

The enameling division of Industrial Electric, Inc., located on Central Avenue, adjacent to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad tracks, will be dedicated at 11 a.m. Wednesday, May 2.

Governor Ross R. Barnett will deliver the principal address and Mayor John A. Scaffie will give the welcome. Joe Bullock, director of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board, will also be one of the speakers, while Robert Guilbault, plant manager, will make the announcements and welcome the guests.

Rev. Kevin Reid, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, will give the invocation, and Rev. Charles Johnson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, will give the benediction.

The 58,000 sq. ft. building was constructed under the BAWI program by the $300,000 bond issue approved by an overwhelming majority of Bay St. Louis qualified electors last August 12.

Cox-Hardie Construction Company of New Orleans was the general contractor for the construction with Southern Industrial Contractors, of which Charles Gottschalk of this city is president, subcontracting for construction of the metal building. E. M. Brignac Jr., was consulting engineer for the project.

The sheet metal fabrication department of the plant opened February 19 with approximately 25 employees, and the enameling division moved here March 12.

Shipments of material, according to Mr. Guilbault, began April 1 and among larger contracts received in the past few weeks, he added, are one for window wall panels for a 22 story building in Louisville, Ky. and one for panels for a 12 story building in Houston, Texas.

Guilbault said the plant is now operating with approximately 130 employees.

The plant, which manufactures architectural porcelain enamel for service stations, office buildings, store front and industrial purposes, is said to be one of the 10 largest producers of this product in the United States.

Industrial Electric, Inc., was incorporated June 10, 1929, and the Enameling Division was formed in 1945. E. M. Brignac Sr., who has been making his home in Bay St. Louis for the past 18 years, is president of Industrial Electric, Inc.

Commissioner J. Cyril Glover and City Attorney Dan M. Russell delivered the BAWI bonds to the First National Bank of Memphis, Tenn., February 16 and received a check for $300,000 to be used to reimburse Industrial Electric, Inc., for the site and construction of the enameling plant.

The transfer by Industrial Electric, Inc., of its enameling division plant to the City of Bay St. Louis was completed February 23.

The land and building will be leased by the company from the City of Bay St. Louis at an annual rental over a period of 25 years in an amount sufficient to retire the bonds and pay all interest charges against such bonds, with the Company having the option to renew the lease.

Kantcha Ketchum

The weather over the weekend was ideal for fishing, golfing, etc., but most everyone stayed home with the family and the Easter bunny and to attend church. Some fishermen went out Friday and Saturday and caught some fish.

Yours truly was in New Orleans over the weekend and enjoyed a crayfish feast. Friday caught about 50 pounds but they were rather small. Have been advised that they will be much larger about a week later, will try them again.

Spent a pleasant morning at Clerk of Court office in the Court House mingling with old friends who frequently visit Bay St. Louis to fish, crab, etc. They were Mr. Ed Haggerty, Clerk of Courts, Dan Haggerty, Sam Hunt, Jack Graham, Monty Kilbright, Louis A. Dehon, Henry J. Alexander and Joseph Seiffert. Later enjoyed a dinner of big knuckles and sauerkraut at Kolbs Restaurant. Will retell tale with soft crabs, fellows.

"Mac Rigney" and Henry Gies-henmayer were reminiscing old times spent at the Bay. Don't you remember so and so?

Kenny Morrison tells us he has a couple of good cray fish places he is saving for us. Waiting for the word to come over, Kenny.

Jack Miller, a frequent visitor to the Bay, will be over soon. Sends regards to friends.

Read where a 40 million year-old fossil was found in Mississippi last week. Didn't know Mississippi was that old.

DUCK HUNTING EXTENSION HOPED

The office of Rep. Frank E. Smith said Wednesday Mississippi duck hunters may get a longer season this year.

The Miss. congressman's office said the department of interior expressed the hope that the season could be extended. Determination will be made after the department survey of duck breeding grounds.

The department's response came as a result of recent request by Rep. Smith that the Mississippi duck season be set up on what he called a "more equitable basis." He says the Mississippi season is set too early for duck hunters to enjoy a fair hunting opportunity.

Audubon Park's crippled baby whooping crane died at St. Louis while undergoing an operation to correct a slipped tendon, George Douglass, park superintendent said today.

Doctors at a St. Louis feed firm laboratory told Douglass the original operation was a success but the bird, in a spasm, broke stitches in the leg and had to undergo surgery again.

Douglass said the second operation was just too much for the 10-day-old bird.

The zoo has six other whooping cranes, four of which have been hatched at the zoo. There are only 46 known whoopers in existence.

A number of folks spent the Easter weekend at the Bay as usual. Some fishing, boating and even swimming were indulged in. Plans were made by many for the coming summer season when school is out and the kiddies are in heaven enjoying the usual summer activities. Won't be long now.

Tony Euterante and Luke El-lott made a couple of fresh and salt water fishing trips over the weekend. They reported some good catches.

Understand that soft crabs and flounders are being caught each night. They should continue to be caught for the next few months. Of course, the weather, the tide and the moon control this particular kind of sport. All that is needed is a good light spear and patience to enjoy these table delicacies.

Now is the time of year when hunting and skiing will get into full gear. Let's make it a safe sport. Respect others who are fishing and snowed out of their other boats.

Ogden Beta Lambda Fraternity of Loyola University with the boys doing the serving and entertaining (of course, with their girl friends helping) entertained about 40 orphans at City Park Monday. The children enjoyed snowballs, ice cream, cakes, etc., and had an Easter egg hunt as well as a ride in the miniature train. This treat to the orphans has been an annual affair for the past several years. Good work, members of the fraternity. Keep it up.

According to news in the Times-Picayune of April 25—the shrimp season in Louisiana is to open on May 15, delayed by the Wild Life and Fisheries Commission. It could have opened May 1, but small size of the shrimp was cited for the 15-day delay. In another action at its meeting the commission recommended that the 1962 season on ducks in the Mississippi Flyway be no less than 50 days, with a bag limit of at least eight. Good news to duck hunters.

Local interest is building up on the Kentucky Derby to be run on May 5th. Even though lovers of the racing sports can't be there they will be pulling for their favorites. Yours truly attended this outstanding classic eight years ago, a wonderful event and worth attending.

New Unloader Reduces Grain Handling Labor

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—Equipment which saves labor in unloading grain from a truck has been developed by agricultural engineers of the Mississippi Experiment Station.

The unloader consists of an auger in a wooden trough in the bottom of a pick-up truck. It extends lengthwise from the back of the cab, out through a hole cut in the tailgate. A raised false floor, sloping to the center, feeds the grain into the auger so that no shoveling is necessary.

Before loading the truck, the auger is covered with short boards. This prevents the grain from packing in the auger, clogging it and stalling the motor. To unload, the electric motor which drives the auger is started and one of the short boards is removed to allow the grain to feed in. Other boards are removed successively until the grain is unloaded from the entire length of the truck. The grain drops into a container behind the truck, where another auger picks it up and conveys it into the bins.

This equipment will unload 40 bushels of corn in 7 minutes, and 80 bushels of oat in 14 minutes. When the truck is not being used for hauling grain the unloader is easily removed. The opening tailgate is covered with a metal plate held in place by four small bolts.

Agricultural Engineer G. Burns Welch, who developed the equipment, estimates the cost of materials at about $60. A more detailed report of this machinery is published in the April issue of Mississippi Farm Research available on request from the Experiment Station at State College, Mississippi.

DRAFT SAFETY REGULATIONS FOR DRY
CLEANING MACHINES

Safety regulations for the installation and operation of coin-operated dry cleaning machines in Mississippi are being drafted now by the State Board of Health and will become effective in the near future.

In view of the forthcoming regulations, Dr. A. L. Gray today said that any person contemplating opening the "do-it-yourself" dry cleaning establishments might save time and expense by contacting the State Board of Health before finalizing their plans.

"Findings from a survey of plants now in operation indicate that many of them are going to have to make extensive changes in order to meet minimum safety standards," said the State Health Officer.

"This fact prompts us to recommend that any plans for new installations be cleared with the forthcoming regulations," explained Dr. Gray.

Questions pertaining to dry cleaning machines may be directed to the Division of Occupational Health, State Board of Health, Jackson, Mississippi, telephone number 2-3102.

The proposed regulations, according to Dr. Gray, are based on the desire to provide adequate health protection for both the customer and operating personnel since the solvents used in the coin-operated machines exhibit toxic properties.

Such authority is vested in the State Board of Health by the State Legislature under Section 7031 of Code 1942.

Starkly Dramatic Film Story Could Happen!

The incredible becomes real, the impossible becomes fact and the unbelievable becomes true in "The Day The Earth Caught Fire," the timely, unusual and dramatic motion picture which opens Thursday, May 3 on the screen of the Legion Theatre.

Janet Munro, Leo McKern and Edward Judd are starred in "The Day The Earth Caught Fire," which features Arthur Christian, who is the editor of the editor of the London Daily Express, a post he actually held for 24 years.

Based on an original story by Wolf Mankowitz and Val Guest, with Guest producing and directing, the picture's suspenseful and startling theme deals with the effects of a massive thermo-nuclear explosion which obliterates the earth from its axis and sends it spinning toward the sun.

The picture, set against the authentic background of the London Daily Express office, is a Val Guest production, in association with Pax Films, Ltd., and is released by Universal Pictures.

Mr. Powell Glass
Editor, Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis, Miss.

To the Editor:

As an elected member of the Hancock County School Board and in the interest of the school children of this county, on April 12th, 1962 in the "Our Readers Write" column of the Sea Coast Echo Newspaper, I requested the editor to clarify a reporter's misinterpretation of my statements at the School Board Meeting, to which they very graciously complied.

At that meeting I introduced a resolution, which was unanimously passed, in protest of Mr. R. G. Hubbard's desire to use 16 section school land at Jackson Ridge, on the Beach, as an Air Base. This would have deprived the school children of Hancock County of receiving any reasonable amount of revenue. This clarification had nothing to do with who built the present Air Base nor did my statements have anything to do with who should get the credit for the Air Base.

In this issue of April 12th, my letter to the Editor, expressed the fact that I am interested in progress and in an Air Base, and as proof I mentioned that the present Air Base was built during my tenure in office. I do not understand why Mr. Hubbard took exception or felt it necessary to so viciously attack me the following week in the April 19th issue, unless it was because I was objecting to his proposal to a new Air Base on school property, to be built with Federal Aid next to the Gulfside Assembly on the Beach.

It is commonly known that I am not a Candidate for any public office. I am very well satisfied with my present office, having been elected recently to the Hancock County School Board and have almost five years yet to serve. I am happy to serve in this capacity, which is without pay, because I feel that I can be of service to our Youth of today, our citizens of tomorrow and the entire school system. I certainly am not going to let Mr. Hubbard or anyone else interfere with the successful operation of the school system.

As far as Mr. Hubbard attacking me as above mentioned on the construction of the Air Base, I am certain he did so without much research, nor does he know what took place before his term of office, which was six months after we closed the deal for the land with Mr. Henry Chapman and had possession of the land under a Lease and option to Purchase contract.

In all fairness to the public and to keep the records straight here is a brief summary of the planning and origination of the present Airbase.

In the early part of 1951, Mr. Warren Carver, who was the Mayor of Bay St. Louis consulted with me, as the President of the Board of Supervisors in reference to planning a City-County Airport. This matter was discussed for several months before the Board of Supervisors and Mayor Warren Carver arrived at an economical plan as records will prove.

On Pages 445-447 in the minutes Book No. 5, on record in Chancery Clerk Office, in May 1951, the Board of Supervisors and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chapman entered into a contract of a Lease purchase option, at the rate of $50.00 per year for the first three years at a sale price of $1500.00 and the first warrant was paid to Mr. Chapman on May 17, 1951 (Seven months prior to Mr. Hubbard taking office).

After several meetings and due consideration of all concerned, we contacted Officials at Keeler Field, through great assistance of Mayor Carver, and were advised they would assist in the clearing of this land for an Air Field. Mayor Carver then went to Keeler and negotiated for equipment and workers without any cost whatsoever to the County.

Upon arrival of this equipment from Keeler, and as planned with the cooperation of the other Board of Supervisor Members, they brought their trucks, graders and other necessary equipment, with their workers and operators to Bay St. Louis (from their respective Districts) and began the building of the Air Base.

Mr. Russell J. Rollins the County Engineer, laid out the original plans and engineering design. Other Board Members, Mayor Carver and myself checked and supervised the work that was being carried on. Trees and stumps were removed, the ground prepared, surfacing by dozers, County trucks hauled fill and the graders leveled the ground.

At that time in accordance with records of the Board of Supervisors minutes, Book No. 5 and on July 12, 1951 (almost 6 months before Mr. Hubbard took office) an "Air Base Fund" was originated by the Board, and the President and the Clerk of the Board, Mr. A. C. Mitchell, were ordered to transfer $1,000.00 from the Advertising Funds into the new "Air Base Funds". This also is supported by records.

Because the Airport was under construction and whereas this land was under the jurisdiction of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, on July 9th, 1951 (Recorded in Minute Book 5) the Board designated a building to be placed on the Air Base Land and same to be used as the Edwardsville Voting Precinct. This building was used in the 1951 County Election, almost 5 months prior to Mr. Hubbard taking office.

It must be remembered that this was eleven years ago, and as practically all of this work was done at an extremely low cost, with no Federal Aid Money. Through careful and economical maneuvering and through the help of four other Board Members and Mayor Warren Carver, the Minutes and Claim Docket would not reflect everything that was done at that time. And reflects only expenditures, which were comparatively little, and not the actual work. This was done through cooperation and donations as above mentioned.

The same four Board of Supervisors members, Mr. Johnson Shaw, Mr. Jack Lott, Mr. Joseph Jones and Mr. Frank Kellar, and Mayor Warren Carver (Who so diligently in the early planning and advance work, were all in office when Mr. Hubbard succeeded me in January 1952. Undoubtedly these gentlemen continued the work and as I understand enlarged the base, probably making it necessary to knock down additional stumps and leveling of the ground. Thereby enlarging and completing the Air Base.

As near as I can remember and as the records at the Court House will reveal, this is the true history of the Hancock County Air Base.

Most courteously,
ED ORTIE

June 20 Deadline For Entering Calves In Stock Feeder Show

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—June 20 is the deadline for entering groups of calves in the first Mississippi Stocker-Feeder Calf Show and Sale, August 10 and 11 in Jackson.

This date was recently advanced from June 1 to give prospective exhibitors more time due to the severe winter and other factors, explained Frank Brumfield of Inverness, chairman of the event.

The entry fee is $1 per head. This will be a part of the $2.50 per head commission charge.

Classes will be carload lots of 15 and pens of 5 head, both steers and heifers, but shown separately. Weights will be from 300 to 600 pounds.

The premiums include $100 for the first place carload lots and $40 for the first place pens of five. This will be the same for each of the Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn breeds. For crossbred cattle, the sire of the calves will determine the breed in which they are shown.

"The most important thing about this show and sale is that it gives us an opportunity to ad-help you and that has already been done during June and July in the magazine of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board. It will pay you to make the best use of this and other extensive advertising and publicity by entering the best that you can," he declared.

See the local county agent for complete information about the show and sale.

Development Programs Are Common Place Throughout State

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—Walk down almost any Mississippi street, highway, or country road today and chances are good that you will hear the word "development" used, according to Dorris W. Rivers, program leader of the Agricultural Extension Service.

More than at any previous time, Mississippi is organizing, planning, or undertaking projects in a development program. Every county is looking at development in all of its aspects.

"A concerted effort is being made through the Rural Areas Development Program to harness all resources in an overall development program. This involves both strengthening existing programs and initiating action in areas where little or no work is being done," Mr. Rivers explained.

The RAD objectives are to develop all human and economic resources in the county, he said. This may include agriculture, but is not restricted to it. People are studying their resources for tourism, recreation, industry and community facilities.

Organizational leadership for this effort is being furnished by the Agricultural Extension Service. As each county organization moves toward an action program, specialized assistance is being given by all agencies and organizations in the county.

Dr. W. E. Johnson of Ripley is chairman of the State RAD Committee.

"We don't expect a revolution from all this development work that is going on in every Mississippi county, but we do predict many, many changes that will result in better living for Mississippi," Dr. Johnson stated.

What Teenagers Must Do To Get Learners Permit

Many of Mississippi's teen-agers want to drive but do not know exactly how to go about getting their learner's permit and then the license. Chief Drivers License Examiner W. H. Sutherland of the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol lists six basic steps that must be complied with to get a permit or license. They are:

1. Contact a Mississippi Highway Patrol driver license examiner and get a copy of the Driver's Handbook and an application form.
  2. Study the Handbook carefully.
  3. Have both parents sign the application before a Notary Public.
  4. Get a certified copy of your birth certificate, if you are under 18 years of age.
  5. Return to the Highway Patrol License Examiner and take the written tests necessary to get a learner's permit, and
  6. When driving skills have been mastered, return to the Patrol License Examiner and take the road test.
- These are the correct steps. If there are any further questions, a Highway Patrol License Examiner can be contacted at Patrol Headquarters or at the Sheriff's Office in any county. He will be happy to help any applicant get a proper license.

Power Mowers Can Be Dangerous If Improperly Used

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—Power mowers, improperly used, can be extremely dangerous, says Miss Susie Overstreet, specialist in health education with the Agricultural Extension Service and the State Board of Health.

A recent study revealed that one power mower injury in seven results in a permanent injury. Miss Overstreet said. Seven out of 10 people injured by power mowers came in direct contact with the mower. The other three are hurt by object thrown by the mower.

Some suggestions for mower users to help avoid injury include:

"Clear the area to be mowed. Remove all rocks, pieces of wire, nails sticks, broken glass. Power mowers can pick up and hurl bits of debris at speeds of around 170 miles per hour. Blades can also be broken off by striking a hard object and hurled through the air."

"Always shut off the engine before putting hands near blades. Never use power mower while barefooted or in open-toe shoes. Allow engine to cool before refueling."

"Keep mowers free from accumulations of grass, leaves or excessive grease."

"Do not allow children or young teenagers to operate mower."

"When using an electric mower, be sure that grass and mower are dry."

"Closely follow manufacturers' recommendations for operation of mower."

Local Task Force
Among Many Launching
Cancer Crusade

A local task force of some thirty men and women will be part of a nationwide army of more than 3,000,000 volunteers who will launch the American Cancer Society's annual Crusade.

CDay stands for Conquer Cancer," said Andy J. Becker, Chairman of the Hancock County Cancer Crusade.

"This week volunteers of the Hancock County Unit of the American Cancer Society will call on friends and neighbors with the double-barrelled objective of saving lives now as well as in the future."

"Every resident in Hancock County can cooperate in this venture," said Mr. Becker, "by heeding the advice in the life-saving educational literature which volunteers will distribute and by making a generous contribution."

Right now, half of all the cancer patients who will get cancer this year could be cured if their cancers were detected and treated in time, Mr. Becker asserted.

"Our immediate objective is to help save these lives—an estimated 280,000 men, women and children."

"The long-range objective," he added, "is to save the other 280,000 cancer victims who will get cancer this year. Hope for them rests with scientists who are searching for breakthroughs that will cure all types of cancer or perhaps prevent them."

"The more money that we can earmark for cancer education," he pointed out, "the more people we can reach with life-saving information; the more money that can be invested in cancer research, the sooner we will arrive at a solution to the cancer problem. I urged every one of my fellow townmen to give generously to the Crusade and to help Hancock County exceed its goal."

In announcing the opening of the Crusade, Mr. Becker said that thirty volunteer workers would work on a number of committees under the following Chairmen:

Residential, Mr. Robert Givens, Mr. Harold Krankey, Mr. Harold Sauer, Mr. Henry Capdepon, Mr. Ed Werling and Mr. Joseph Selle, members of the American Legion as co-chairmen. Trades and Industry, Mrs. Joseph Benvenuti, Mr. Laverne Pahlman as co-chairmen. Waveland Residential, Mrs. Thelma Landry, Chairman.

Anyone wishing to volunteer their services in any of the above areas or in the Lakeshore, Clamont Harbor, Kilin, Logtown and Pearlinton area please contact Mr. or Mrs. Andy J. Becker at HO-7-4030.

Got a broomsedge area where you want something else to grow? Here is a plan that will replace the almost useless broomsedge with good grazing.

Clip the area closely. Fertilize with 500 to 600 pounds of high analysis fertilizer. During April and May graze the area heavily. Cattle will eat broomsedge in its early growing stage. In late April or early May spray the area with 2,4-D. Use one pound in 10 to 20 gallons of water to the acre.

Then from May to October graze the area a week or 10 days. Then rest for two or three weeks. In October, use a sod seeder and plant 100 pounds of oats or wheat to the acre. Apply 500 pounds of mixed fertilizer to the acre.

HOME GARDENING

Good Friday (April 20 this year) has long been the time to plant beans—according to the old folks. And lots of times the old folks know what they are talking about!

Plant all kinds of beans in your home garden—bush butter beans, pole butter beans, speckled butter beans, bush and pole snap beans. Plant them at different times so that you will have a supply coming along all the time. Protect the beans from bugs! Pick them closely to prevent over maturity. You will be glad you did. They are mighty good eating!

Some other April jobs include planting corn, field peas, cucumbers, squash and the setting of tomatoes and peppers. Plant sugar snap seed for crows next year.

CLOVER GRAZING

Graze crimson and white clover heavily. It will pay you to cross fence and graze one field and then move to another field and let the grazed down one come back.

Bregrass in clover or alone gives excellent grazing. Handle it just like you do clover grazing—graze it down and give it a rest.

SUDAN AND MILLET PLANTING If you are going to need extra early grazing, it will pay you to plant Sudan or millet, now. How about making at least three plantings?

One now, one in May and one in June. Plant one third acre for each cow at each planting.

Farmers who want Sudan and millet in the summer can plant Sudan first and then follow with millet in the second planting. The first planting should also be sub-

Baby chicks can't talk — we know that. But we wonder what this little chick would think if chicks could think? Probably he's bewildered . . . a great big world . . . great big problems . . . an orphan already . . . and hungry! Yet, there's deep meditation here. Man is often like that little baby chick; bewildered, confused, wondering . . . especially those on the threshold of a new life or venture. We don't know all the answers, of course, but we do know some! We do know how to reach our Creator (PRAYER), how He reaches us (BY HIS GRACE). We also know that the most serene place for such communion with the Creator is in church. Here you'll find many answers to many problems. It's worth a try, isn't it?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Army Draft Call For Month of April Is 6,000

The Department of Defense has requested the Selective Service System to provide armed forces induction station with 6,000 men during April for assignment to the Army.

This quota, and the Army quota for March which was also 6,000 mark a notable decrease in Army inductions since the beginning of the Berlin build-up, starting last fall.

The larger draft calls during September through February were necessary to bring the Army to the strength objective established for the Berlin Crisis. As result of these higher draft calls, and other personnel action, this strength objective of the Army has now been reached.

Other gains have been obtained through enlistments, reenlistments and officer appointment programs. Since the start of the build-up, a more than 20 per cent improvement in enlistments has been experienced.

Approximately half of the total Army personnel gains, exclusive of reserve recalls, since the beginning of the Berlin build-up, have come from inductions.

The April draft quota, in accordance with established policies, has been computed by the Army to cover losses, thereby maintaining the approved strength.

State Legion Official: Denny Removes They Made Political Deal

Thomas J. Kirk of Benton, state Commander of the American Legion, today denied political reports that the veterans organizations had made a "deal" with anyone or any group regarding legislation that would weaken the State Veterans Affairs Board.

"These reports which have appeared several times are false and completely misleading," Kirk said.

"For sometime the major veterans organizations in the state have been very dissatisfied with the service being rendered by the State Veterans Affairs Board. In fact, one of these organizations now refuses to let the Board serve as their representative at all."

He further stated that the veterans organizations had no desire and were not seeking to control any board.

"It seems that when an effort is made to abolish one of the too many Boards or Commissions now in existence and supported by the state, immediately opposition develops, but we of the American Legion will continue to fight for the best interests of our disabled, their widows and dependents, efforts to the contrary notwithstanding," Kirk concluded.

God-fearing Men

According to a number of official surveys and reports, there are no known communists in the state of Mississippi. Among the two million persons who live here, none has been converted to this conspiracy against the individual, which threatens so much of the free world.

Although there may be impoverished Mississippians—a condition upon which communism is said to feed—as far as is known not one has sought relief in the ranks of Russian socialism.

Centrally situated in that region sometimes slurringly called "The Bible Belt," our state has given birth to a God-fearing breed. Long dependent upon the soil and the elements, they have emerged as conservative, industrious, frugal, loyal Americans.

The native Mississippian has produced an enviable work record, showing more efficiency, less absenteeism, less sickness and fewer accidents. Countless employers testify that he takes a personal pride in his craftsmanship—a trait that has almost vanished in the automation of the Twentieth Century.

Springing from a heritage with deep taproots, nurtured by a devotion to the family, schooled in sound thought, spiritually anchored to an abiding faith in God, the Mississippian has evolved as a solid, worthy and well qualified type of American.

Influenced by our basic fundamentals of freedom, the home, the school, and the church, we create here a life of economic salvation and abundance.

READ AND HEED—Pretty Geraldine Reeves, State Highway Department Secretary, puts the finishing touches on a new anti-litter slogan being painted on all vehicles of the department. According to Highway Commissioner John D. Smith, the litterbug message will soon be on every Highway Department vehicle in the state. Roadside litter, he said, costs Mississippians thousands of dollars annually, in addition to the bad impression conveyed to the tourist.

FORESTRY NOTES

According to a statement made today by Area Forester Glenn Purvis of Hancock County, people who have young loblolly or shortleaf pines, either as ornamentals or commercial stands, should be on the lookout for evidence of pine tip moth attack.

This insect, the Nantucket Pine Tip Moth, causes damage to all our native pines, with the possible exception of longleaf, and to most introduced species. Attacks on slash pine are relatively rare. Trees 15 feet or more in height are usually not attacked, Purvis continued.

Infestation may be recognized by the presence of excess resin on or near the tips of the new growth or by the death of the tips.

The moth, which is quite small, lays its eggs on the tips of the branches or main stem. As the egg hatches, the larvae mine into the buds and new growth. While attacks are seldom fatal to the tree, they result in loss of height growth and excessive forking of the main stem and branches.

There are several complete generations of this insect each year, from early Spring to Fall. While complete control is not practical, spraying of the pines at regular intervals of about two weeks throughout the Spring and Summer with one of the following insecticides will usually give satisfactory results. To make one gallon of spray, use 3 tablespoonful of 50% DDT wettable powder or 2 tablespoonful of 40% chlordane wettable powder in water.

Area Forester Purvis cautioned that all insecticides are poisonous to man and pointed out that the directions and precautions on the labels of the insecticides should be strictly followed.

Your floors will last much longer if they are waxed regularly. Do it every 4 to 6 months. If you have children in the house, you'll probably want to touch up some spots oftener.

You can remove rubber marks caused by tennis shoes and hard rubber heels with naphtha or paint thinner.

Use alkali to remove stains from vegetable oils and greases. But if you've got grease from the car or drippings from your vacuum cleaner motor on the floor, there's not much you can do

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

Everything's easier if you feel top notch. So try to make sure your child begins school feeling his best.

If he starts school with a handicap, it is twice as hard for him to adjust to school. And starting to school or any new experience takes some adjusting.

Start your Johnny and Mary off to school with a complete examination by your doctor. If he finds defects, talk with him about the best way for you to help correct defect or deficiencies. By having the examination now, there will be time to have corrections made before school starts.

Next, have your dentist go over your child's teeth. Remember for a well-shaped mouth and healthy permanent teeth, take care of "baby teeth."

Before entering school, your child should be adequately immunized against smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus and polio. Check with your doctor or health department. Booster shots may be needed.

Don't forget, the child entering school for the first time will need a copy of his birth certificate. You can obtain this through your local health department.

Check in your town. If they are holding pre-school conferences, attend so your child will be ready when school starts next fall!

FROZEN FOOD CONTAINERS

With wide top openings make it easier to remove the food before it is thawed completely.

HOLD THAT WEIGHT

What a feeling of accomplishment when you step on the scales and watch the needle settle down at a place that shows you've lost pounds! Those pounds you've been counting calories and cutting down on serving to lose.

And then a few weeks or a month later, where are you? The scales say right back where you started!

What happen? You went back to your old habits of too much to eat and too little exercise.

The way to keep those pounds off, is to follow the same plan that you followed to reduce. You can't suddenly go back to your old calorie-laden diet.

You may ease up a little on your diet, but increase servings cautiously. And always keep an eye on the scales.

NO RIDERS

Particularly on tractors! Remember, tractors are designed for one person. Two on a tractor can lead to tragedy.

Most of the children from 4 to 6 years old killed in tractor accidents were just along for the ride.

Granddad, don't take little Johnny for a ride with you on the tractor. Last year two children under six were run over by tractors in Mississippi. Their grandfather was taking them for a ride and they fell off. The same safety precautions need to be taken by any driver. Dad, his brother or neighbor.

LOW CALORIE WHIPPED TOPPING

1/2 cup cold water, 1/2 cup nonfat dry milk, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 to 4 tablespoons sugar. Sprinkle dry milk on the water. Beat until stiff enough to stand in soft peaks. Add lemon juice. Continue beating until stiff. Beat in sugar.

CLEAN FLOORS

Perhaps your floors are in for a good cleaning. A part of your regular housework. It's important to keep your floors clean. Not only for appearance, but for health. Dust and dirt can cause allergies and other respiratory problems. Use a good floor cleaner. Sweep or vacuum first. Then mop with a clean cloth. Rinse with clean water. Dry with a clean towel. Your floors will look better and last longer.
